OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 27 October 1977

1. [] BRIEFING I arranged with Gwen Pritchard, in the office of Representative Ike Skelton (D., Mo.), that our briefing on Panama for the Congressional group traveling there at the end of November will be held on 1 November, at 12:15 p.m., in H-139, the Capitol. Pritchard said that she would let us know before the briefing as to who among the traveling members may actually attend. STAT

2. [] BRIEFING Dr. William Whitson, of the Library of Congress, called to ask if [] and Jim Lilley, NFAC, could attend a seminar at the Library of Congress on 3 November. Whitson had already talked with Lilley and [] but they suggested that he be in touch with OLC. I called Whitson's secretary to get further details, and she said that the seminar is entitled, "Pacific Basin Systems of Power." She said that about ten people had received invitations to participate including Ray Cline and Amis Jordan, of the Georgetown Center for Strategic and International Studies, and Erlin Heginbotham, at the Department of State. I referred the request to [] NFAC/CSS. STAT

3. [] BRIEFING I tentatively arranged for a discussion with Andrew Hamilton, CBO, and [] OSR, of matters of methodology for 4 November, at 2:00 p.m., at Headquarters. I gave Hamilton unclassified figures on gross national product's of the Soviet Union and six countries of eastern Europe for 1976 which he had requested. He asked if the figures had been printed in any publication, and I put the question to [] NFAC/CSS. He said that he would not attribute the figures to CIA if he used them. STAT

4. [] LIAISON Per [] request I forwarded to Marvin Feuerwerger, in the office of Representative Christopher Dodd (D., Conn.) one copy of a listing of "Unclassified CIA Publications Released Through DOCEX."
